

The Ursula Hoff Art History Scholarship

Guidelines and Eligibility

Potential Candidates

The Ursula Hoff Art History Scholarship is open to currently enrolled students of the University of Melbourne who are undertaking subjects and/or degrees in Art History (which includes the fields of historical and contemporary art, art curatorial studies and art theory).

It will be awarded once annually on the basis of academic merit and financial need to assist one or more students to complete a degree, develop a research project, or undertake an academic extension activity related to the field of Art History. The kinds of activities supported by the Hoff Scholarship include the following:

- Support for students undertaking coursework degrees
- Support exchange opportunities for students
- Support research students with grants for conference attendance, field work and study trips interstate and abroad
- Support student conferences, publishing initiatives and other projects aimed at developing students' professional abilities so as to make them able and dynamic contributors to the field of art history in Australia and beyond

The scholarship will be determined by a Selection Committee chaired by the Head of the Art History Program and will be determined on the basis of academic merit and financial need. Particular emphasis will also be given to the applicant/s potential, as set out in the Scholarship application, to make a contribution to the discipline of Art History in Australia and/or overseas.

Scholarship value and terms

The value of The Ursula Hoff Art History Scholarship will be $2,000 (two thousand dollars) in the first year. Funds awarded by the Ursula Hoff Art History Scholarship must be expended within twelve months of receiving the award unless special permission has been granted by the Committee. A report on the expenditure of funds is also required within twelve months of receiving the award, using the Faculty of Arts Scholarship Report Form (available online at: <http://arts.unimelb.edu.au/scholarships-prizes/> )
